

Side by Side: Interpreting Dual Stories in the Bible

What is your reaction to biblical accounts that don't mesh? Are you troubled? Do you want to know more? This fall we will continue this study which explores pairs of biblical passages, this time from the New Testament. These are passages that sometimes complement and sometimes contradict each other. The purpose will be to address the difficult issues and to understand the intent of the scriptures in question. The study text is written by Frank Ramirez.

Heartland Center Team member, Connie Burkholder, M. Div., will lead this study. The cost for the remaining 5 class sessions is $25 plus the cost of the book. Classes are on Mondays, 3:00 - 4:30 pm at Heartland Center for Spirituality.

The five remaining sessions will be held the fall of 2010 on the following dates:

September 27	November 8
October 11	November 29
October 25

Everyone is welcome! You don't need to have attended the 5 classes in the spring to participate in these fall classes.

To register contact Brenda Black at 620-792-1232 or brenda@heartlandspirituality.org.
