

Holy Week Retreat

Into your hands I commend my spirit

April 1–8 2012

Presented By Rev. Paul H Colloton
Heartland Center for Spirituality
3200 Broadway
Great Bend, KS

The practice of surrender is a form of detachment. A major obstacle to spiritual depth is attachment. Classical spiritual literature instructs us in the dangers of attachment. Surrender is a remedy to that obsessive tendency. Jesus surrendered his very life to God, but not without pain and suffering. Let us walk with Jesus this Holy Week and learn from him what it means to surrender our lives, emptying ourselves with Him and giving our lives into God's hands like Him, knowing that the promise of sharing in His Resurrection is His offer to us.

Option one—Cost $200

April 1st—5th

Palm Sunday Liturgy—Holy Thursday Morning

Option two—Cost $150

Triduum Retreat April 5th—8th

Holy Thursday Liturgy—Easter Morning Liturgy

Option Three—Cost $300

April 1st—April 8th

Palm Sunday Liturgy—Easter morning Liturgy

Paul H. Colloton, OP, D.Min. was ordained for the Order of Preachers (Dominicans), Province of St. Albert the Great. The Director of Continuing Education for the National Association of Pastoral Musicians (NPM), Paul has over 40 years experience in pastoral ministry as a preacher, presider, musician, liturgist, music educator, spiritual companion, consultant, and HIV/AIDS ministry. Paul is a liturgical consultant for Loyola Press, a board member of the Georgetown Center for Liturgy and coach for its Leading from the Heart program, and presider at St. Rose of Lima Parish, Gaithersburg, MD and Our Lady of Good Counsel Parish, Vienna, VA. He is currently in a three year period of discernment about transfer of vows to the Oblates of St. Francis de Sales, Wilmington-Philadelphia Province.

Register online www.heartlandspirituality.org

Email office@heartlandspirituality.org

Or call Brenda Black 6207921232