A TIME TO LEARN A TIME FOR PRAYER

Carla Mae Streeter OP is a Dominican of the Congregation of Catherine of Siena in Racine, Wisconsin. She is presently a professor of Systematic theology and Spirituality at Aquinas Institute of Theology, a graduate school of Theology and Ministry sponsored by the Dominicans of the Central Province adjoined to St. Louis University in St. Louis.

Using the resources of the Lonergan Research Institute in Toronto, Canada, she completed doctoral studies with the Canadian Jesuits at Regis College of the Toronto School of Theology in Toronto in 1986. She was co-recipient of the first Jean-Marc Laporte Scholarship Award for academic excellence, and the first woman to complete a theological doctorate at Regis College. Her specialty is the thought of the Canadian Aquinas scholar, Bernard Lonergan, as that thought provides a framework for the dialogue of theology with other disciplines, and with other religious traditions.

Philip St. Romain, M.S., D. Min., has ministered as a retreat director and spiritual director for over 30 years. He is the author of 20 books on prayer, spirituality and theology, including Here Now in Love: The Roots of Contemplative Spirituality, and also Growing in Inner Freedom, Jesus Alive in our Lives, and Twelve Steps to Spiritual Wholeness. His book, The Logic of Happiness: Proverbs and Practical Wisdom for Spiritual Living, received an Angel Award for excellence in media in 1996.

Philip has been a member of the retreat team at Heartland Center for Spirituality since 1997. He and his wife, Lisa, have been married for 35 years and are the parents of three grown children.

Take some time off to feed your mind and spirit. Our Theology Institute with Carla Mae Streeter OP presents an opportunity to deepen your understanding and perspective on current issues that are shaping our world. The retreat with Philip St. Romain will feature an atmosphere of silence and prayer to listen to what God is communicating to you at this time in your life.

THEOLOGY INSTITUTE 2012

Who are we as Dominicans in the Church and world today? How is our charism distinctive? How do we word it today? If Dominic were here today, what would he wrestle with? How would he approach questions involving ecology, evolution, the new atheists? What light would he bring to doctrinal questions such as original sin and the role of the Church among other faith traditions? We are men and women of the Word. What word do folks need to hear from us at this time, in this age? These days we will explore these questions and more. Together we will explore who we are...for TODAY!

June 15 (7:00 p.m.) -19 (1:00 p.m.), 2012.

$175 Commuter (includes lunch Saturday - Tuesday)

$295 Registration, room and board.

LISTENING TO GOD A CONTEMPLATIVE RETREAT

"How does God speak to you, and what is God communicating these days?" will be the focus of this retreat. We will observe contemplative silence throughout except for times of group prayer and short teachings. Each day will include opportunities for praying the Liturgy of the Hours, Mass, group Lectio Divina, group contemplative sitting, and spiritual direction; there will be many hours of unstructured, open times for walks on our grounds, rest, or whatever one chooses. Come prepared to enter more deeply into the silence to become more aware of God's presence and action in your life.

Philip St. Romain, M.S., D. Min.

June 21 (7:00 p.m.) -25 (1:00 p.m.), 2012

$295 Registration, room and board.

Free room from June 19-21 for those who attend both programs. Meals from supper Tuesday through Thursday will be on your own or can be provided by the Center for $39.00.
